

Secure, flexible & free.
Now you're free to flex your power.

50 FREE seats will help you flex your power.

We're so confident that you'll love Tarantella® Secure Global Desktop™ Enterprise Edition software, we'll give you 50 user licenses, for free, when you purchase an IBM® eServer® xSeries® from Mainline Information Systems.

Applications on demand, anywhere you are, from virtually any device.

Looking for a more powerful alternative to Citrix®? Tarantella Secure Global Desktop Enterprise Edition software running on an IBM xSeries server gives you the power and security you need to run server-based applications across the enterprise or over the Internet, without high cost and complexity. Only Tarantella can give you the flexibility of cross-platform support for Windows®, Linux® and legacy applications in a single solution. And with that kind of power, you'll be as confident as we are. Offer expires 03.31.2005. For complete details:
